Kherson region

During the night of 3 to 4 March, the Kherson Monitoring Team heard shooting at a distance. On the afternoon of 4 March, the Mission noted that internet and mobile coverage became intermittent at the SMM's office in Kherson city.

SMM evacuation

The Mission continued evacuation activities as per the 24 February instruction to temporarily evacuate all international mission members.

On 4 March, the evacuation westward through Ukraine of the Kharkiv Monitoring Team and relocation of national mission members formerly stationed in Kramatorsk and Sievierodonetsk continued.

Due to ongoing kinetic activity and the dynamic movement of front lines, the Monitoring Team located in Kherson city continues to shelter in place. It is planned to withdraw the team, once arrangements can be put in place to do so safely.

The Chief Monitor and senior management will remain in Ukraine until the rest of the evacuation process is complete.
