1101st Plenary Meeting

PC Journal No. 1101, Agenda item 3

STATEMENT BY THE DELEGATION OF FRANCE

Mr. Chairperson,

I associate myself with the statement by the European Union and should like to add a few remarks in my national capacity.

Mr. Chairperson,

France attaches primary importance to preventing radicalization in order to counter terrorism effectively. Thus, in April 2014, France adopted a plan to counter terrorist networks and violent radicalization. In this context, a national centre for acting upon and preventing radicalization was established to aid the families of radicalized individuals. In particular, the centre operates a toll-free hotline to collect reports of radicalized individuals and those in the process of radicalization.

On 9 May 2016, the Prime Minister presented the new plan of action against radicalization and terrorism, which significantly strengthens the French arsenal of measures.

The plan aims to double the capacity for dealing with radicalized individuals and those in the process of radicalization, and their families, within the next two years. Sixteen hundred young people and 800 families affected by radicalization are now being managed appropriately, on a voluntary basis, by the prefectural monitoring units of the regions in which they live.

France has set a goal of opening citizenship and rehabilitation centres in each region by the end of 2017. The first centre will be established this summer to deal with individuals in the process of radicalization. Accommodation centres for radicalized individuals will be established subsequently, and will implement a more focused set of measures to get those who are under judicial or social and educational monitoring to withdraw from radical activity, particularly on their return from conflict zones.

An interministerial guide to preventing radicalization, comprising 36 fact sheets, has been prepared for the prefects and magistrates who head the 95 regional monitoring units, describing detection and reporting methods, nationwide co-ordination and organization procedures, and various psychological, educational, social and vocational services.

As the Prime Minister stated, virtual meetings and cyber propaganda are becoming triggering or accelerating factors in the radicalization process. For this reason, the French plan of action identifies three avenues for countering jihadist propaganda on the Internet:

- Developing measures to regulate the Internet, while calling on Internet users to act responsibly;
- Developing cyberpatrols to detect, identify and obstruct websites and networks;
- Developing counter-arguments and counter-influence efforts and disseminating and supporting those stemming from various sources and channels, both official and independent.

Mr. Chairperson,

I am also taking advantage of today's discussion to announce that Ms. Fabienne Servan-Schreiber, president of the French audio-visual company CINÉTÉVÉ, who produced the French Interior Ministry media campaign to counter radicalization and promote deradicalization, will be coming to Vienna on 14 June. Her visit, organized in agreement with the Chairperson of the Contact Group with Mediterranean Partners for Co-operation and the Chairperson of the Security Committee, falls under the OSCE's work in the area of preventing and countering radicalization, which France supports. On this occasion, Ms. Servan-Schreiber will present the Interior Ministry's video campaign, which was shown on French and international media. She will be accompanied by the mother of a young girl who left for Syria four years ago, Ms. Valérie de Boisrolin, president of the association "Syrie Prévention Famille" (Syria Family Prevention). Their CVs will be annexed to my statement.

I strongly urge all delegations to attend this presentation of a specific possible action for preventing and countering radicalization. It will take place at 9.30 a.m. on Tuesday, 14 June, in the context of a meeting of the Mediterranean Contact Group.

France views this as an opportunity to share its experience in order to strengthen co-operation on an important topic that concerns the Partners for Co-operation as well as the participating States, and, in so doing, to encourage this type of activity.

There must be a large turnout for these two speakers as evidence of our commitment to preventing radicalization and our desire to take part in specific actions.

Thank you, Mr. Chairperson.

I request that this statement be attached to the journal of the day.

By the delegation of the Russian Federation:

“In joining the consensus on the Permanent Council decision on the extension of the mandate of the OSCE Project Co-ordinator in Ukraine, we take the position that it corresponds to the new political and legal situation in the region, according to which the Republic of Crimea and the federal city of Sevastopol are an integral part of Russia. INTERPRETATIVE STATEMENT UNDER
PARAGRAPH IV.1(A)6 OF THE RULES OF PROCEDURE
OF THE ORGANIZATION FOR SECURITY AND CO-OPERATION IN EUROPE

By the delegation of Ukraine:

“Mr. Chairperson,

In connection with the decision of the Permanent Council on the extension of the mandate of the OSCE Project Co-ordinator in Ukraine, the delegation of Ukraine would like to make the following interpretative statement under paragraph IV.1(A)6 of the Rules of Procedure of the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe.

The Autonomous Republic of Crimea and the city of Sevastopol, which are an integral part of Ukraine, were illegally occupied and annexed by the Russian Federation in violation of the OSCE principles and commitments and norms of international law. The sovereignty and territorial integrity of Ukraine within its internationally recognized borders are safeguarded by the Constitution and legislation of Ukraine and norms of international law. The territorial integrity of Ukraine within its internationally recognized borders was reconfirmed by the UN General Assembly resolution 68/262 ‘Territorial integrity of Ukraine’ of 27 March 2014.

Ukraine stresses that the mandate of the OSCE Project Co-ordinator in Ukraine extends to the entire territory of Ukraine within its internationally recognized borders, including the Autonomous Republic of Crimea and the city of Sevastopol.

The delegation of Ukraine requests that this statement be attached to the decision and recorded in the journal of the day.

Thank you, Mr. Chairperson.”
