The Ministerial Council,

Re-emphasizing the OSCE participating States' determination to combat terrorism in all its forms and manifestations, as a crime that has no justification, whatever its motivation or origin, and to conduct this fight with respect for the rule of law and in accordance with their obligations under international law, in particular international human rights, refugee and humanitarian law,

Reaffirming the existing OSCE counter-terrorism commitments and the intention to maintain counter-terrorism activities among the priorities of the OSCE,

Reaffirming the OSCE participating States' support for the UN Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy,

Welcoming the G8 Leaders' Statement on Counter-Terrorism adopted on 9 July 2008 at the Hokkaido Toyako Summit,

Reiterating the need to address conditions that may foster and sustain terrorism, in particular by fully respecting democracy and the rule of law, by allowing all citizens to participate fully in political life, by preventing discrimination and encouraging intercultural and inter-religious dialogue in their societies, by engaging civil society in finding common political settlement for conflicts, by promoting human rights and tolerance and by combating poverty,

Recalling, inter alia, the Sofia Ministerial Statement on Preventing and Combating Terrorism (2004), the Brussels Ministerial Statement on Supporting and Promoting the International Legal Framework against Terrorism (MC.DOC/5/06) and the Madrid Ministerial Statement on Supporting the United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy (MC.DOC/3/07),

Taking note of the Follow-up OSCE Public-Private Partnership Conference: Partnership of State Authorities, Civil Society and the Business Community in Combating Terrorism, organized in Vienna on 15 and 16 September 2008, which contributed to identifying possible areas for further co-operation in the field of public-private partnerships in countering terrorism,

Taking note also of the 2008 OSCE Sub-Regional Central Asian Public Private Partnership Conference, held on 4 and 5 November 2008 in Bishkek, Kyrgyz Republic, which showed the importance of the development of public-private partnerships for countering terrorism at the regional and subregional level,

Taking note of the review carried out in the UN system of the implementation of the UN Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy, which provides guidance for the OSCE's counter-terrorism activities, and its contribution to invigorating global counter-terrorism efforts,

1. Calls upon the participating States and the OSCE executive structures to continue their efforts aimed at actively contributing to the implementation of the UN Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy and other UN counter-terrorism documents;
2. 3. Tasks the Secretary General and relevant OSCE executive structures to support the organization in 2009 of expert-level seminars, workshops and simulations, within available resources, that would encourage public-private partnership initiatives in such areas as co-operating with civil society and the media in countering terrorism, promoting intercultural and interreligious dialogue in countering terrorism, protecting non-nuclear critical energy infrastructure from terrorist attacks, and combating the financing of terrorism and money laundering, especially with regard to the implementation of the Financial Action Task Force's (FATF) Special Recommendations on Terrorist Financing;
4. Calls upon the OSCE participating States to make use of the OSCE executive structures in countering violent extremism and radicalization that lead to terrorism in their respective countries. Thereafter, as provided for in MC(10).DEC/3, the participating States will review implementation of OSCE commitments in combating terrorism at the 2009 Annual Security Review Conference;

INTERPRETATIVE STATEMENT UNDER PARAGRAPH IV.1(A)6 OF THE RULES OF PROCEDURE
OF THE ORGANIZATION FOR SECURITY AND CO-OPERATION IN EUROPE

By the delegation of Georgia:

“While it has joined the consensus on the Ministerial Council decision on Further Promoting the OSCE’s Action in Countering Terrorism, Georgia regrets the fact that, during the Ministerial Council meeting in Helsinki, the participating States were not able to reach consensus on appropriately addressing the issue of existing unresolved conflicts and territories lacking legitimate governance within the OSCE area. Absence of the rule of law, democracy, respect for human rights, lack of transparency at both national and international levels and growing trends of violent extremism and radicalisation in some of those territories provide favourable conditions for spreading of international terrorism. Therefore, adequate reflection of this issue in the Ministerial Council decision would be utmost essential for ensuring full and effective implementation of all OSCE counter-terrorism commitments.

We request that this statement be attached to the decision adopted and be included in the journal of today’s meeting.”
