Deputy Chairpersons for the Municipal Assembly for Communities (DCMACs) 2015

The OSCE Mission in Kosovo (OSCE) supports improved communities' participation in public decision-making and governance processes and institutions. To assist in this effort the OSCE regularly monitors the performance of municipal communities' protection mechanisms. These information sheets aim to provide the relevant municipal actors and central-level institutions with indicators that can assist in the identification of compliance gaps and tracking increased compliance.

Key Facts:

- Mandated to promote inter-community dialogue and serve as a focal point for addressing communities' concerns and interests in the municipal assembly;

Promote inter-community dialogue

Address concerns and issues related to the needs of communities in the meetings of the municipal assembly and its work

Review claims by communities or their members that the acts or decisions of the municipal assembly violate their constitutionally guaranteed rights **

*Duties outlined in the legal and policy framework that are regularly monitored by OSCE

The next step for any such cases would be for the DCMAC to refer the matter to the municipal assembly for its reconsideration of the act or decision.

If the municipal assembly chooses not to reconsider its act or decision or the DCMAC deems that, even upon reconsideration, the act or decision presents a violation of a constitutionally-guaranteed right, then the DCMAC refers the matter directly to the constitutional court.
